

Domino's Pizza Signs New Deal with Coca-Cola

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Domino's Pizza has signed a new multiyear deal with its existing beverage supplier, Coca-Cola.

Financial terms were not disclosed.

Domino's President and CEO Patrick Doyle said in a statement on Thursday that Coca-Cola is a terrific fit for its franchisees, workers and customers.

Domino's, which is based in Ann Arbor, Mich., has more than 10,500 locations in more than 70 international markets. Coca-Cola's brands include Sprite, Diet Coke, Fanta, Minute Maid, Powerade and its namesake. Coca-Cola is based in Atlanta.

Shares of Domino's Pizza Inc. were flat at $71.21 in afternoon trading, while Coca-Cola Co.'s stock added 1 cent to $39.76.

Source URL (retrieved on 03/05/2015 - 5:30am):

<http://www.foodmanufacturing.com/news/2014/01/domino%E2%80%99s-pizza-signs-new-deal-coca-cola>