Okla. Manufacturer Recalls 8,700 Pounds of Chicken

ENID, Okla. (AP) — A food supplier with operations in Oklahoma is recalling more than 8,700 pounds of frozen chicken products because of misbranding and undeclared allergens.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture says the products from AdvancePierre Foods were formulated with milk and soy, which are not declared on the label.

The recall affects 10-pound bulk cases of Our Down Home Style Chicken Breast Fritters for Chicken Frying. The USDA says the products were distributed to food-service establishments in Arkansas, Colorado, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, New Mexico, New York, Oklahoma, Texas, Utah and Virginia.

The USDA says it's received no reports of illnesses.

Advance Food Company was founded in Enid, Okla., in 1973. In 2010, the company merged with Pierre Foods to create AdvancePierre Foods, which has headquarters in Ohio.
