nomination form, requirements and guidelines are online at www.pmmi.org/PHOF [1]. Nominations should be no longer than 1,500 words and describe how the candidate has personally advanced packaging science, technology and practice; expanded the packaging industry knowledge base, and served the industry as a remarkable volunteer leader. Posthumous nominations will be considered.

The ceremony will be held at a special reception during PACK EXPO International 2014, 5:15 – 7 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 4, at the Hyatt Regency McCormick Place hotel, adjacent to McCormick Place. Tickets are available for $75 per person, and table sponsorships range from $1,500 to $3,000.

To purchase tickets, visit PMMI.org, and to arrange sponsorships, contact Maria Ferrante, vice president, education & workforce development, PMMI: mferrante@pmmi.org [2] or 571.612.3195. Proceeds from the reception benefit the PMMI Foundation, offering educational assistance and scholarships for students in two- or four-year packaging programs. Previous honorees are listed at www.pmmi.org/PHOF [3].
