

Automated Sales and Use Tax Solution

Food Manufacturing Staff

Company has announced the availability of an automated sales and use tax compliance solution through its strategic partnership with Avalara, a provider of sales tax and compliance automation services in the cloud. Managing the complexity of multiple use and sales taxes is now less time-consuming and laborious. Plex Online users who opt for this functionality will no longer be required to research and verify taxes required by states, counties, cities, municipalities and other government entities.
