

VIDEO: Why Do Wines Taste Differently?

Published on Food Manufacturing (<http://www.foodmanufacturing.com>)

VIDEO: Why Do Wines Taste Differently?

American Chemical Society

There's dozens of different varieties of wine, but it turns out even different wines made from the same kind of grapes can smell and taste different.

Researchers at UC Davis studied Malbec wines from grapes grown in Argentina and California. The Argentine Malbecs were sweeter than their Californian counterparts, proving that it's the geography as well as the grape that makes all the difference in winemaking.

Video of Why wines taste different and how to keep them fresh

Read: Wine symposium explores everything you wanted to know about the mighty grape \(video\) [1]

Source URL (retrieved on 03/02/2015 - 10:08am):

<http://www.foodmanufacturing.com/videos/2014/08/video-why-do-wines-taste-differently>

Links:

[1] http://www.eurekalert.org/pub_releases/2014-08/acs-wse071014.php